

Famous Riders Cross Sea to Join Circus

AT Chickasha
Oct. 2

The Lloyds, a family of English riders who are to be seen here with Ringling Bros' circus on Saturday, Oct. 2 have been pronounced by equine experts of American to be the most daring bareback riders ever seen in the circus ring. This wonderful family, consisting of father, mother, son and two daughters, ride in Indian costume and the entire act is carefully staged to give the atmosphere of early aboriginal days. The wild feats of horsemanship performed by these men and women have astonished even the most expert riders among the redskin tribes throughout the west. The horses used by the Lloyds are thoroughbreds, coming from a long line of old English "cross" ring stock. As a rule the horses employed in the circus are carried on a different train from that used by the performers. The Lloyds, however, would not consent to be separated from their mounts and a special car was built for them. They occupy quarters in one end of the camp, while the other is fitted with stalls for the stallions used in their fascinating act.

FREIGHT DERAILMENT.

Only Remedy for Selfishness.

What is most pitiful and at the same time amusing about the people who give themselves up to selfishness is their habit of referring the whole universe to themselves. It is as if they were at the center, with all life radiating about them. Through their false sense of adjustment they find themselves continually subjected to disappointing and irritating and dispiriting adventures. Attitude, remarks, behavior, perhaps not in the least related to themselves, they cause to assume an imaginary relation. Their feelings are likely to be in a continual state of turmoil. They encourage it by persisting in the belief that the trouble lies outside. And yet the remedy is always waiting for them in their consciousness. To make life over they need only to make over themselves.

Flower of the Evening.

It is when the sun goes to bed that the evening primrose's morning dawns. It is one of the denizens of the Great White way of the Flower city, waking while the world sleeps and sleeping while the world wakes. At the approach of evening it decks itself in yellow and white, perfumes itself with the most seductive of sweet-smelling odors, and prepares to welcome the sphinx moths that come to tarry and to sip its sweetness through the long silent night. One night of revelry is enough for a flower of "midnight primrose," for when morning dawns the corolla withers, hangs a white and then drops away. She pays dearly for her night of dissipation.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Chickasha Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of Chickasha readers.

W. Williams, Chickasha, says: "Whenever, as the result of a cold settling on my kidneys or a strain from standing long, I have suffered from lameness in my back or have noticed irregular action of my kidneys, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills. The results have always been satisfactory. Others of my family have been benefited, too, by this medicine."

COFFMAN GETS COIN

Mayor Coffman when he poses as the "blind goddess" in handing out great lumps of justice to delinquents who chance to appear before him in the municipal court, never overlooks a bet in the matter of getting the "bits."

"You are charged with this offense, or that, are you guilty?" says the mayor.

"Well, now, your honor, you see it was just this way, technically, etc., etc., but—"

"All right. Ten dollars, please don't do it again."

And this admonition, especially the $10 part of it, has added during the present month $396.25 to the credit side of the bank account of the police department.

Added to this is the amount, uncollected, of $21. "But these amounts will be collected," said Mayor Coffman last night, "and they will be collected before the first of the month. Two lines included in the total of $21 now unpaid are for speeding and you just bet they will be in the hands of the city treasurer before midnight on September 30."

Overtaken by Law After Lapse of Years

Judge Davenport of the county court cited an instance this morning which, while it shows that justice even though long delayed, will in the most instances overtake an evil doer, bears the distinction of carrying the heaviest penalty ever known to have been given an offender after many years had elapsed between the time of the commission of the crime and the trial of the accused.

In Franklin county, Texas, Judge Davenport's old home, a negro killed a white woman in 1892. He was apprehended but never brought to trial on account of insufficiency of evidence upon which to convict. "This insufficiency of evidence was so palpable that mob violence was not thought of."

However, officers of the law always thought the negro guilty and during all the time which has passed since the murder was committed, down to the present, cases have been held on the negro while each succeeding set of officers have worked in an effort to secure sufficient evidence to gain a verdict of guilty.

A short time ago this evidence was obtained, the negro was arrested and put on trial and a few days ago a jury brought in a verdict of guilty and assessed his punishment at 99 years in the penitentiary.

Increased Enrollment in Grady Co. Schools

Miss Adole Zinn, acting county superintendent during the absence of Supt. Shepard in Oklahoma City, stated this morning that returns from rural and village schools, unofficial in most instances, show a heavy attendance increase over any recent preceding year.

In many instances in the rural schools, additional teachers have been employed in order that the extra number of pupils may be handled in the most expeditious manner possible.

Substitute for Horn.

A cheap and easily made substitute for horn can be made of wheat flour and sodium silicate. This substitute is very hard and strong and, by inserting organic dye into the composition while mixing, it can be colored to imitate almost any kind of horn substance. The compound is made by mixing 10 parts (by volume) of sodium silicate (40 degrees Baume) with distilled water, and then stirring the resultant liquid into a thick paste with fine white wheat flour. The mass is then allowed to stand for three weeks, during which time it undergoes a chemical reaction that produces a hard, hornlike substance. This composition can be molded without pressure when first made and turned and machined like brass after it has set.

Preserving the Court's Dignity.

A Missouri justice of the peace has devised a plan whereby judges may resent insult in an approved manner, and at the same time invoke the majesty of the law to defeat retaliation. "Judge" Green had laid aside the shoe-maker's awl, and was engaged in the trial of a civil suit that involved $1.25 and costs. In the course of argument, Marks, counsel for the defendant, made a statement reflecting upon the court's knowledge of the law. Whereupon the court, rapping upon the side of his bench and gazing fearlessly into the eyes of defendant's counsel, said: "We will now take a brief recess. Marks, you are a d-d liar." Marks lips parted with a show of resentment, but before he could proceed, the court rapped for order with the injunction: "Shut up, Marks! Court is now in session."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Crack Italian Troops.

The Bersaglieri is for the most part composed of men of much better social standing than the rank and file of the Italian army, and they claim, with considerable justice, descent from the famous army of some 70,000 men that, under Charles Albert, confronted the armed might of Austria in 1848, and formed the backbone of the Italian army in the Crimea six years later. Here it attracted general admiration from its excellence of organization, equipment and discipline. Thus it will be seen that the Bersaglieri is at once unique in its establishment and its training.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, and I could not sleep, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live."

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."

Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
